SDEVEN Software Development & Engineering Methodology

Version: 7.0.10

Release date: 230805

-#NOTE the template starts here. README this before using this template

-#NOTE all fields that should be filled are marked as -#NOTE and enclosed in `<...>` as `code section like me`

-#NOTE `<your project name here>`

Project Status Report

- project code: `<project code>`
- target for meeting type: `<one of devREVW or prodREVW meeting types>` -#NOTE this establish the expected level pf details in this report
- report issued date: `<yymmdd>`
- report issued by: `<issuer name>`

- Project Status Report
  - Actual overview
    - Work done
    - Work still in progress
    - Current system status
  - Actions and next steps
  - Roadmap proposals
  - Attached documents

Actual overview

Work done

- -#NOTE list here work done. Normally should refer the CHANGELOG (default expected). Other referred docs should be attached to this report and listed in "Attached documents" section.

Work still in progress

- -#NOTE briefly list here remaining open issues / work to be done up closing. Different docs can be referred (for example an OPEN ISUUES LIST) and must be attached to this report and listed in "Attached documents" section.

Current system status

- -#NOTE describe the current software system status as:
  - alpha,
  - beta - waiting for qa testing,
  - beta - qa testing started
  - stable & released

Actions and next steps

- -#NOTE if necessary list relevant requirements and actions in order to close issues or to achieve a stable status

Roadmap proposals

- -#NOTE list here the proposals for next features, improvements, fix bugs, ... Use the customer support & feedback channels.

Attached documents

- ...

Last update: August 4, 2023